Master of Music Education, M.M.E.

Douglas T. Owens, Graduate Program Director

The College of Arts and Letter offers the Master of Music Education degree with concentrations in applied performance/conducting, research, and pedagogy. The graduate degree is designed to develop advanced knowledge of broad-based principles and practices in music and music education for application in the public or private school, private studio, or higher education setting. A minimum of 34 semester hours of coursework is required to complete the degree, with the hours distributed according to the area of concentration. The degree does not provide Virginia state licensure for teaching.

Admission

In order to be admitted into the graduate program each candidate must have earned a bachelor’s degree in an applied music, music education, music history, or music theory and have earned an overall GPA of 3.0 with a 3.0 in the major field of study. All candidates are required to take the GRE or the MAT. Candidates seeking the concentration in applied studies are required to audition before the graduate faculty. Video and audio-taped auditions are accepted.

Degree Requirements

The three areas of concentration for the Master of Music Education degree are:

1. Applied Concentration, requiring 34 hours of course work and full master’s recital in performance or conducting
2. Research Concentration, requiring 34 hours of course work and a thesis or problems paper
3. Pedagogy Concentration, requiring 34 semester hours of coursework

Required credits for each concentration will include core coursework as well as coursework in the Subject Specialty and Cognate areas.

Before the completion of 12 credits, each candidate must declare a concentration of study. Those accepted into the applied option must pass an applied jury or performance presented before the graduate faculty for continuance review during each semester of study. Students in all areas of concentration must pass a written comprehensive examination near the completion of their studies.
