Educational Foundations and Leadership

Jay Scribner, Chair

The Department of Educational Foundations and Leadership offers master's and education specialist degree programs in educational leadership and supervision and higher education. Educational leadership and higher education are offered at the doctoral level as emphasis areas in the Ph.D. in Education program. The department also offers a separate Ph.D. program in Community College Leadership. Please refer to the Graduate Catalog (http://catalog.odu.edu/previous/2015-2016/graduate) for information on these programs.
