Interdisciplinary Studies coordinates the administration and delivery of nine degree programs: the Bachelor of Science in interdisciplinary studies-teacher preparation program (http://catalog.odu.edu/undergraduate/collegeofartsletters/interdisciplinarystudies/bs-ids---teacher-preparation); the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees in interdisciplinary studies-individualized programs (http://catalog.odu.edu/undergraduate/collegeofartsletters/interdisciplinarystudies/bs-and-bs-ids---individualized-integrative-studies); and the Bachelor of Science in interdisciplinary studies-professional writing (http://catalog.odu.edu/undergraduate/collegeofartsletters/interdisciplinarystudies/bs-ids---professional-writing), work and professional studies (http://catalog.odu.edu/undergraduate/collegeofartsletters/interdisciplinarystudies/bs-ids---work-and-professional-studies), cybersecurity (http://catalog.odu.edu/undergraduate/collegeofartsletters/interdisciplinarystudies/bs-ids---cybersecurity), cybercrime (http://catalog.odu.edu/undergraduate/collegeofartsletters/interdisciplinarystudies/bs-ids---cybercrime), cyber operations (http://catalog.odu.edu/undergraduate/collegeofartsletters/interdisciplinarystudies/bs-ids---cyberoperations), general engineering technology (http://catalog.odu.edu/undergraduate/collegeofartsletters/interdisciplinarystudies/bs-ids---engineering), and leadership (http://catalog.odu.edu/undergraduate/collegeofartsletters/interdisciplinarystudies/bs-ids---leadership) programs. For IDS students, no more than two classes, or six credits, may be counted for both the major and a minor. Topics courses, such as ENGL 395/ENGL 495, COMM 395/COMM 396, etc., must be approved by the student's advisor to ensure that the topic is appropriate for the major.
