Jennifer Fish, Chair

Women's studies is a multi- and interdisciplinary field of study encompassing all aspects, historical and contemporary, of women's natures, lives, and perspectives. The Women's Studies Department offers the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees with a major in women's studies. A minor and a graduate certificate are also available, as is an accelerated program allowing exceptional students to earn both a B.A. or B.S. in women's studies and an M.A. in humanities in five years.

The women's studies undergraduate major and minor and graduate certificate may increase a student's career opportunities in governmental and non-governmental agencies, law, criminal justice, public relations, journalism, counseling, the health professions, business, social welfare, education, and many other fields; they can also prepare students for new and exciting research opportunities in graduate and doctoral programs.

Electives

Elective courses may be taken for the remainder of the minimum 120 credits required for the degree.

Upper Division General Education

• Option A. Approved Minor, 12-24 hours; also second degree or second major.
• Option B. Interdisciplinary Minor, 12 hours specified by the department, 3 of which may be in the major area of study.
• Option C. International business and regional courses or an approved certification program, such as teaching licensure.
• Option D. Two Upper-Division Courses from outside the College of Arts and Letters or from the Arts and Humanities Component within the College of Arts and Letters that are not required by the major (6 hours).

Requirements for graduation include a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.00 overall and in the major, 120 credit hours, which must include both a minimum of 30 credit hours overall and 12 credit hours of upper-level courses in the major program from Old Dominion University, completion of ENGL 110C, ENGL 211C or 221C or 231C, and the writing intensive (W) course in the major with a grade of C or better, and completion of Senior Assessment. Students must receive at least a C in WMST 201S, WMST 302W and WMST 460W. In order to track their intellectual growth, each women's studies major is expected to maintain a portfolio of papers and assignments submitted for their WMST and WMST cross-listed courses.

Old Dominion University
Women's Studies as a Second Major

Students who find themselves especially interested in women's studies but who already have a major may fulfill their upper-division general education requirements by selecting women's studies as a second major. Such students must complete the same departmental requirements as those majoring solely in women's studies, but may count up to three women's studies cross-listed courses taken for their other major toward their women's studies major as well. For instance, a student majoring in both sociology and women's studies may apply three courses, such as SOC 340, SOC 343, and SOC 427, taken toward their sociology requirements, as the three electives for their major in women's studies.

Minor in Women's Studies

Students who have completed WMST 201S may complete a minor in women's studies by filing an application and taking 12 hours as follows:

* Meets impact of technology requirement.

 One additional WMST course, e.g., WMST 368, WMST 470, or a course cross-listed with women's studies in the Schedule of Classes from disciplines such as history, philosophy, communication, English, criminal justice, foreign languages, sociology, psychology, political science, art, etc.

Students must maintain a grade point average of 2.00 in all courses required for the minor exclusive of lower-level courses and prerequisite courses and complete a minimum of six hours in upper-level courses in the minor requirement through courses offered by Old Dominion University. Completion of the undergraduate women's studies minor will fulfill the upper-division General Education requirements.

Advising

To declare a women's studies major or minor, students must see an advisor in the Women's Studies Department. All women's studies majors are required to have a conference with their advisor before each semester (preferably during preregistration).

Linked B.A./B.S. in Women's Studies and M.A. in Humanities

The linked program in women's studies and humanities makes it possible for exceptional women's studies majors to count up to 12 hours of graduate courses toward both an undergraduate and graduate degree. Students must earn a minimum of 150 credit hours (120 for the undergraduate degree and 30 for the graduate degree). For more information consult the Humanities section of this Catalog.
