Additional Requirements

Program Course Requirements

The Doctor of Philosophy in Education (Counseling) is comprised of courses totaling 60 academic credit hours beyond the master's degree. The curriculum includes advanced courses in counseling, supervision, teaching, and research, a doctoral practicum and an internship, and 12 credits of dissertation.

Program Completion and Exit

In order to complete the program, students must complete required courses in a satisfactory manner, pass examinations, and complete an acceptable dissertation. Ph.D. students must meet all requirements included in the University Graduate Catalog, the Ph.D. in Education (Counseling) Program Handbook. It is the responsibility of the student to obtain these documents and complete requirements.

Prerequisites

Graduation from a master's degree program in counseling that was accredited by the Council on Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) is a prerequisite. If a doctoral student's master's degree program was not accredited by CACREP, the student must take master's-level courses and field experiences they are missing as part of their Ph.D. program.
