Jonathan Leib, Chair

The Department of Political Science and Geography offers undergraduate degrees in political science, geography and international studies.

In political science, the Department offers Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees. The political science program is designed to give students an essential core of basic knowledge and analytical skills, while providing an opportunity to specialize in one of two emphasis areas: American politics and public law, or international relations and comparative politics. Optionally, students may major in one of the following areas: 1) International Affairs and Global Politics or 2) Analytics, Institutions, and Public Policy.

In geography, the Department offers Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees. The geography program is designed to give students a broad base of geographical training and an understanding of human-environment interrelationships, while providing an opportunity to specialize in one of three majors: urban planning and emergency/hazards management, environment and resources, and geographic information systems (BS only). Undergraduate and graduate certificates in cyber risk management, geographic information science, hazards and emergency management, spatial analysis of coastal environments, and urban studies and planning are also offered.

The Department offers a Bachelor of Arts degree in international studies (BAIS), which is an interdisciplinary program that offers students a chance to explore the interrelations among nations and peoples and to study world affairs from a variety of perspectives. The BAIS major focuses on studies in world languages and cultures, geography, history, and political science. Students have considerable flexibility to structure their academic programs to meet their particular needs and interests or to focus in a variety of geographical or topical fields.

In addition to developing subject-area expertise, political science and geography courses are designed to build analytic and communication skills. Writing and critical thinking skills are emphasized throughout the curriculum. Undergraduates in most 400-level courses in political science and geography are required to make oral presentations in class. Instructors also strengthen students’ verbal competency skills through in-class discussions. Students gain technical skills in lower and upper-level methods classes where computers are employed for data analysis and social science research.

Undergraduate students may earn honors in the major in political science, geography or international studies by fulfilling all the requirements for the specific degree (BA and BS) and meeting the honors requirements. The requirements for honors do not increase the credit hours necessary for the major.

Advanced Placement

Students interested in advanced placement credit should confer with the department chair. Information on credit awarded for qualifying scores on AP and IB subject examinations can be found on the equivalency charts on the Office of Undergraduate Admissions website at https://www.odu.edu/admission/undergraduate/credit.

Linked BA/BS in Geography and MA in Humanities

The linked BA/BS program in geography and the MA in humanities makes it possible for exceptional students to count up to 12 hours of graduate courses toward both an undergraduate and graduate degree. Students must earn a minimum of 150 credit hours (120 discrete credit hours for the undergraduate degree and 30 discrete credit hours for the graduate degree). Please refer to the Humanities section of this Catalog for additional information on the linked program.

Linked BA/MA Program in International Studies

Qualified students can apply for admission to the linked BA/MA graduate program in international studies. The program allows students to count up to 12 credit hours of international studies courses toward both an undergraduate and graduate degree. Students must earn a minimum of 150 credit hours (120 discrete credits for the undergraduate degree and 30 discrete credits for the graduate degree).

Requirements for Admission

Requirements for admission are:

1. A declared major in the BA program in international studies (BAIS).
2. A minimum of 60 hours completed, including at least six hours of 300/400 courses in the major.
3. A minimum GPA of 3.5 at the time of application.
4. Application to the linked BA/MA program in international studies, approved by both the BA and MA directors.
5. Take the GRE during the last semester of BAIS work with an expected minimum score of 1100 (verbal and quantitative totals).
6. Complete an application form for Old Dominion University graduate admission. Students specializing in a region (e.g. Asia, Latin America, etc.) are encouraged to complete a minor at the undergraduate level.

Program Requirements

Students pursuing the linked BA/MA program will fulfill all lower-level General Education requirements that have been approved for the BAIS and meet the requirements to earn a BA in international studies.

Total Credit Hours 54-57

* A minimum of six credits beyond the requirement for the Bachelor of Arts (preferably in the language pursued for the BA) or demonstrated proficiency to that level as approved by the chair of the Department of World Languages and Cultures. Current language offerings include: Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Latin, Russian, and Spanish. Native speakers of a language other than English may ask for a waiver. To be considered a native speaker, a student must be admitted to Old Dominion University with a passing TOEFL score.

 Students select one course that links culture to other aspects of international studies in an integrative, interdisciplinary way. Examples are World Cultural Studies (WCS) literature and film courses, English World Literature courses, and other culturally focused, international, interdisciplinary courses, and those from disciplines other than GEOG, HIST, and POLS as available and approved by the BAIS director.

 An overall GPA of at least 3.00 is required in these courses.

The BA in international studies will be awarded on completion of 120 credit hours including all the preceding courses and other University requirements for graduation.

Master of Arts Requirements

After obtaining the BA in international studies, students must complete the following:

1. Four graduate courses in one of the following fields of concentration (instead of the three required for MA students): international relations/U.S. foreign policy; conflict and cooperation; international political economy and development; and interdependence and transnationalism.
2. Two electives at the 600 level or above. At least one should have a regional focus (e.g. Europe, Asia, Middle East, Latin America).

The MA in international studies requires 18 credits beyond the four Bridge Courses (the MAIS core courses). It is anticipated that a student who has completed the BAIS could thus take three courses in the fall and spring semesters. There will be no thesis option.

Additional Requirements

Students in the linked BA/MA program must also complete the following:

1. Fulfill the BAIS language requirement (which also fulfills MAIS requirements).
2. Take the GRE during the last semester of BAIS work with a minimum expected score of 1100 (verbal and quantitative totals).

Political Science and Geography 2
3. Have an overall GPA of 3.00 in the seven core undergraduate courses and at least a GPA of 3.00 in the four Bridge courses (MAIS core courses).
4. Maintain an overall GPA of 3.00. (Students failing to maintain a 3.00 GPA may revert to the regular BAIS degree and count up to 12 hours of completed graduate core courses toward the BAIS.)
5. Complete an application form for Old Dominion University graduate admission. Students specializing in a region (e.g. Asia, Latin America, etc.) are encouraged to complete a minor at the undergraduate level.

Additional Explanations

1. Students interested in the BA/MA program will be advised as early as possible, and admitted students will start the program during their Junior year in order to meet all the requirements. Thus, students may apply for admission to the linked program after they have earned 60 credits (including at least six hours of 300/400 courses in the major). Applications can be filed with the undergraduate director on or before April 1 for admission in the following Fall semester and on or before November 1 for admission in the following Spring semester. Notifications of acceptance to students will be forwarded by May 1 and December 1, respectively.

2. Students fulfill the BAIS language requirement (which also fulfills MAIS requirements).

3. Students will receive the BA degree after fulfilling all the requirements for the undergraduate degree. Students whose overall GPA drops below a 3.00 before attaining the BA degree can revert to the regular BAIS program and count any graduate credits they may have earned toward the BAIS. Students with a GPA of less than 3.00 at the end of their fourth year will not be permitted to continue toward the MA degree.

4. Students in the linked program must meet the BAIS requirement that students must receive a minimum grade of C (2.00) in the following undergraduate courses:
   - ENGL 110C: English Composition (3)
   - ENGL 211C: Writing, Rhetoric, and Research (3)
   - GEOG 100S: Human Geography (3)
   - POLS 100S: Introduction to International Politics (3)
   - or POLS 102S: Introduction to Comparative Government and Politics (3)
   - ECON 201S: Principles of Macroeconomics (3)

   Select one of the following: (3)
   - HIST 100H: Interpreting the World Past Since 1500
   - HIST 101H: Interpreting the Asian Past
   - HIST 102H: Interpreting the European Past
   - HIST 103H: Interpreting the Latin America Past
   - HIST 105H: Interpreting the African Past

   Not accepted for the major:
   - HIST 104H: Interpreting the American Past

5. Please refer to the Graduate Catalog for additional information on the MA in international studies as well as the doctoral program in international studies.

BA or BS to MBA (Master of Public Administration) Linked Program

The linked BA/MPA or BS/MPA program provides qualified Old Dominion University undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn a master's degree in public administration while taking credits in the MPA program as an undergraduate student. The program is designed for highly motivated students with the desire to immediately continue their education after the bachelor's degree. The program is especially relevant to individuals seeking to work (or currently working) in the public or non-profit sectors, but is suitable for students from any undergraduate major. Graduate courses may be taken during the fall and spring semester of the student's senior undergraduate year. Up to 12 graduate credits can count toward both the undergraduate and graduate degree and can meet upper-level General Education requirements. After receiving the undergraduate degree, a student will continue with the MPA program, taking MPA courses until completing the required 39 credit hours. Students in the linked program must earn a minimum of 150 credit hours (120 discrete credit hours for the undergraduate degree and 30 discrete credit hours for the graduate degree).

Requirements for admission to the graduate program can be found in the School of Public Service section of the Graduate Catalog (http://catalog.odu.edu/graduate/business/public-service/). For additional information, please contact the School of Public Service in the Strome College of Business.

Courses

Geography (GEOG)

GEOG 100S Human Geography (3 Credit Hours)

This course provides a basic topical introduction to human and cultural geography. It focuses on the diversity of human societies, their distribution, characteristics, and cultural impact on the landscape. Topics include the geography of population, migration, language, religion, economic development, urbanization, resources, and the political landscape.

GEOG 101S Environmental Geography (3 Credit Hours)

A geographical study of the diverse characteristics of the Earth's physical landscape, spatial distribution of environmental characteristics, the impacts of these on human populations and human populations' impact on the natural environment. Topics include climate and climate change, mass movements and natural hazards, biongeochemistry, and environmental problems such as desertification and deforestation, and the use and abuse of water resources.

GEOG 102T Digital Earth: Geospatial Technology and Society (3 Credit Hours)

This course provides an overview and exploration of: 1) the digital representation of the Earth and 2) geospatial science and technology. The course investigates geospatial technological innovations affecting the environment, resources, and society, including satellite global positioning systems, geographic information systems, and earth observations. Students develop hands-on skills as well as critical-thinking skills concerning the role of increasingly ubiquitous geospatial technology and their influences on social, economic, and human-environment interactions.

GEOG 126S Honors: Cultural Geography (3 Credit Hours)

Open only to students in the Honors College. A special honors section of GEOG 100S.

GEOG 250 World Regional Geography (3 Credit Hours)

A study of the physical and cultural characteristics of the major geographical regions of the world. The course focuses upon significant problems within each of the world's major regions and examines the relevance of the geographical background to these problems.

GEOG 295 Topics in Geography (3 Credit Hours)

A study of selective topics in Geography.
GEOG 296 Topics in Geography (3 Credit Hours)
A study of selective topics in Geography.

GEOG 300 Maps and Geographic Information (3 Credit Hours)
An investigation of different representations of the Earth: physical and cognitive maps, atlases, spatial databases, aerial photographs, and remote sensing imagery, with an emphasis on the use of geographic tools for communicating and analyzing information.
Prerequisites: GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S

GEOG 305 World Resources (3 Credit Hours)
A geographical analysis of the distribution and accessibility of the world's resources including population, agricultural land, biodiversity, water, renewable and nonrenewable materials, and energy sources.

GEOG 306T Hazards: Natural and Technological (3 Credit Hours)
An exploration of human perceptions of and responses to extreme geophysical and technological threats, including nuclear bombs and accidents, hurricanes, tornados, earthquakes, and volcanoes.
Prerequisites: Junior standing and six credits in the social sciences or permission of the instructor

GEOG 308 Research Design (3 Credit Hours)
Covers the design and implementation of quantitative and qualitative methods of inquiry in social sciences.
Prerequisites: GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S

GEOG 310 Geography of the City (3 Credit Hours)
An analysis of the structure, growth, and development of cities. Topics include the use of urban land, location of public services, structure of the urban economy, social problems of urban populations, and decay and revitalization.
Prerequisites: Completion of General Education human behavior requirement

GEOG 320 Political Geography (3 Credit Hours)
A study of the relationship between geographical and political factors; the nation state and its subdivisions; interaction among states; and the political geography of everyday life.
Prerequisites: Completion of General Education human behavior requirement

GEOG 321 World Economic Geography (3 Credit Hours)
An analysis of differences in spatial patterns on the economic landscape at national and international levels, and the processes which create such differences. Introduces basic concepts, theories, and models in economic geography at the global scale.
Prerequisites: GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S, or permission of the instructor

GEOG 325 Ethnic Minorities (3 Credit Hours)
A study of ethnic minorities worldwide with emphasis on geographical dimensions of ethnicity and relationships between ethnicity and territory, regionalism, politics, and cultural expression.
Prerequisites: Sophomore standing or permission of the instructor

GEOG 330 Field Methods (3 Credit Hours)
A review of selected techniques for generating data in a field situation. Lectures deal with the description and evaluation of techniques such as sampling methods, observation, interviewing, questionnaires, human relations skills and ethical considerations. The project component involves the definition of field problems and the application of appropriate techniques.
Prerequisites: Sophomore standing or permission of the instructor

GEOG 350 Geography of the United States and Canada (3 Credit Hours)
The human and physical geography of the United States and Canada with special emphasis on the distribution of population and natural resources, migration patterns, location of major economic activities, and the variety of regional identities within the U.S. and Canada.
Prerequisites: Junior standing and six credits in human behavior, or permission of the instructor

GEOG 355 Topics in Regional Geography (3 Credit Hours)
A study of selected regions or selected problems within a particular region of the world.
Prerequisites: Junior standing or permission of the instructor

GEOG 367 Cooperative Education (1-3 Credit Hours)
Student participation for credit based on the academic relevance of the work experience, criteria and evaluative procedures as formally determined by the department and Career Development Services prior to the semester in which the work experience is to take place.
Prerequisites: Approval by the department and Career Development Services

GEOG 368 Internship in Geography (1-12 Credit Hours)
Individualized practical experience in the area of applied geography. The credits will be commensurate with the level of the student's involvement.
Prerequisites: Twelve hours in geography

GEOG 370 Introduction to Emergency Management (3 Credit Hours)
Disasters in the U.S and abroad are examined to study the evolution of emergency practices. Factors contributing to the hazardousness of place and community vulnerability are explored. Emergency phases are practiced through interactive simulations.
Prerequisites: GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S, or permission of the instructor

GEOG 395 Topics in Geography (1-4 Credit Hours)
A study of selected topics designed for nonmajors, or for elective credit within a major. These courses will appear in the course schedule and will be more fully described in information distributed to all academic advisors.
Prerequisites: Junior standing or permission of the instructor

GEOG 396 Topics in Geography (1-4 Credit Hours)
A study of selected topics designed for nonmajors, or for elective credit within a major. These courses will appear in the course schedule and will be more fully described in information distributed to all academic advisors.
Prerequisites: Junior standing or permission of the instructor

GEOG 398 Tutorial Work in Geography (1-3 Credit Hours)
Independent study under the direction of an instructor.
Prerequisites: Permission of the instructor

GEOG 400V/500 Seminar in Geography (3 Credit Hours)
Advanced study of a specialized topic in geography. The choice of the topic may vary according to the availability of faculty expertise and student interest. This is a writing intensive course. This course may be repeated once provided it is a different topic and with permission of the instructor.
Prerequisites: A grade of C or better in ENGL 211C or ENGL 221C or ENGL 231C, GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S, or permission of the instructor

GEOG 401/501 Seminar in Geography (3 Credit Hours)
This course analyzes the causes, severity, potential consequences, and proposed solutions regarding global ecological issues with special attention to the scientific debate and the political and policy process. It examines environmental policies of national governments, regional/international organizations, and global conferences.
Prerequisites: GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S or GEOG 102T or POLS 100S or POLS 101S or POLS 102S or permission of the instructor

GEOG 402/502 Geographic Information Systems (3 Credit Hours)
A study of the conceptual basis of GIS as a tool for manipulating spatial information. The course focuses on how geographic information can be input and organized within the framework of a GIS. Students will work on a computer-based GIS to gain a greater understanding of spatial database structures and analytical operations.
Prerequisites: Junior standing, GEOG 102T, or permission of instructor

GEOG 404/504 Digital Techniques for Remote Sensing (3 Credit Hours)
Study of the theory and application of remote sensing, emphasizing environmental applications and aerial and satellite imagery. Covers the fundamentals of multispectral digital image processing, including sensors pre-processing, enhancement, classification, accuracy assessment, and GIS data integration.
Prerequisites: Junior standing, GEOG 102T, or permission of instructor
GEOG 405/505 Seminar in International Resource Management (3 Credit Hours)
Discussion of the ecological and management principles underlying international resource management and the goal of attaining a sustainable, ecologically balanced world.
Prerequisites: GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S; GEOG 305 recommended

GEOG 408/508 Cartography (3 Credit Hours)
Computer-assisted methods and techniques employed in the design, construction, and use of maps and other graphics as tools for data analysis and communication.
Prerequisites: GEOG 300 or GEOG 402

GEOG 410/510 Seminar in Urban Geography (3 Credit Hours)
Discussion of specific urban and metropolitan problems based on outside readings and individually selected research topics.
Prerequisites: GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S, or permission of the instructor

GEOG 411/511 Urban and Regional Planning (3 Credit Hours)
A study of planning concepts and principles used to guide contemporary metropolitan growth and development. Emphasis is on the application of planning tools and methods that guide the planning process from conception to execution.
Prerequisites: GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S, or permission of the instructor

GEOG 412/512 Cities of the World (3 Credit Hours)
An examination of cities of the world's major cultural realms with an emphasis on the urban landscape as it varies between developed and developing countries.
Prerequisites: Junior standing or permission of the instructor

GEOG 417/517 GIS for Planning and Public Policy (3 Credit Hours)
Geographic Information Systems (GIS) and science are an essential tool for urban planners and policy makers who have special interests in places and who need this kind of knowledge for decision making. The purpose of this course is to teach students the foundations of GIS and how it is applied in urban planning and other related disciplines. The course combines lectures, discussion of readings, and hands-on exercises in the computer lab.
Prerequisites: GEOG 402 or permission of the instructor

GEOG 418 Quantitative Methods (3 Credit Hours)
A survey of and practicum in the basic techniques of quantitative research, including the logic of empirical research, the identification of data sources, and the use of appropriate statistical techniques.
Prerequisites: GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S, GEOG 308 with a grade of C- or better
Pre-or corequisite: STAT 130M with a grade of C- or better

GEOG 419/519 Spatial Analysis of Coastal Environments (3 Credit Hours)
The course integrates remotely sensed and field techniques for scientific investigation and practical management of coastal environmental systems. Spatial modeling of coastal processes and management tools using Geographic Information System (GIS).
Prerequisites: GEOG 300, GEOG 402 or GEOG 502, or permission of instructor

GEOG 420/520 Marine Geography (3 Credit Hours)
An analysis of the environmental geography and resources of the ocean, with particular emphasis on geospatial analysis of the seafloor, hydrography, climate change, fisheries, ocean pollution, maritime activity spaces and management.
Prerequisites: Junior standing and six credits in human behavior, or permission of the instructor

GEOG 422W/522 Coastal Geography (3 Credit Hours)
An examination of the physical and human geography of the coastal zone. Considers problems of managing coastal resources with an emphasis on North America. Lectures focus on coastal patterns, processes, and problems at the global, national, and local scales. Students investigate a section of the local coastline and write a report on the physical and human geography on the basis of field study, library, and internet research. This is a writing intensive course.
Prerequisites: GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S, a grade of C or better in ENGL 211C or ENGL 221C or ENGL 231C, or permission of the instructor

GEOG 424/524 Weather, Climate and Society (3 Credit Hours)
Weather and climate play a pivotal role in nearly every aspect of life. How does temperature relate to health outcomes? What impact does El Niño have on Peruvian farmers? How is the issue of climate change reflected in national security policy? Why? Topics also include the energy balance equation, remote sensing techniques, and climatological data acquisition and analysis. Beyond an understanding of the complex processes that dictate the flow of the atmosphere, the course analyzes the socioeconomic, political, and cultural perspectives of climate and weather. The course also provides a framework for stewardship and responsibility to the future.
Prerequisites: GEOG 100S, GEOG 101S, or permission of the instructor

GEOG 425/525 Internet Geographic Information Systems (3 Credit Hours)
Theoretical and practical exploration of methods, standards, and policies related to the development and utilization of geographic information systems on the Internet. Students will create and utilize distributed geospatial data and analytical systems using the WWW and the Internet to address geographical problems.
Prerequisites: GEOG 402

GEOG 432/532 Advanced GIS (3 Credit Hours)
The study of a series of advanced topics in the field of geographic information systems/science. Focus is placed on the development of projects/models and a survey of several advanced techniques. Students will work on a computer based GIS to implement topics from lectures.
Prerequisites: GEOG 402

GEOG 446/546 Geography, Gender, and Sexuality (3 Credit Hours)
This course examines gender identity and sexuality in all of their diverse forms through a lens of human geography, such as metaphors of space and place, the cultural landscape, and 'mapping territory.' Topics explored include global gender identities; ‘queer space;’ ‘locating’ gender and sexuality within the arts and tourism; the gendered citizen and the nation; and political economies of gender and sexuality.
Prerequisites: Junior standing, GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S, a grade of C- or better in ENGL 211C, ENGL 221C, or ENGL 231C, or permission of the instructor

GEOG 451/551 Europe (3 Credit Hours)
A geographical analysis of the interrelationships among physical, cultural, economic, and political factors in Europe.
Prerequisites: Junior standing and GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S, or permission of the instructor

GEOG 452/552 Africa (3 Credit Hours)
A geographical analysis of the interrelationships among physical, cultural, economic, and political factors in Africa.
Prerequisites: Junior standing and GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S, or permission of the instructor

GEOG 453/553 Asia (3 Credit Hours)
A geographical analysis of the interrelationships among physical, cultural, economic, and political factors in Asia excluding the Middle East and the former USSR.
Prerequisites: Junior standing and GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S, or permission of the instructor
GEOG 454W/554 Latin America (3 Credit Hours)
A geographical analysis of the interrelationships among physical, cultural, economic, and political factors in Latin America. This is a writing intensive course.
Prerequisites: Junior standing, GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S, a grade of C or better in ENGL 211C or ENGL 221C or ENGL 231C, or permission of the instructor

GEOG 455/555 The Middle East (3 Credit Hours)
A geographical analysis of the interrelationships among physical, cultural, economic, and political factors in the Middle East.
Prerequisites: Junior standing and GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S, or permission of the instructor

GEOG 458/558 Geography of Virginia (3 Credit Hours)
An analysis of Virginia's population, resources, and regional landscapes as they have been influenced by physical, cultural, historical, and economic factors.
Prerequisites: GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S

GEOG 460/560 Medical Geography (3 Credit Hours)
The course covers a range of topics in medical and health geography, including spatial behaviors of infectious disease and health care access. The focus of the course is on the geographical patterns of health and disease from the population rather than individual scale. In addition to seminar style lectures and discussions, the course enables students to further investigate by learning how to conduct medical/health geography research.
Prerequisites: Successful completion of the University's lower-division General Education requirement in Human Behavior, or permission of the instructor

GEOG 462/562 Advanced Spatial Analysis (3 Credit Hours)
This course introduces the essential theoretical concepts and analytical tools for analyzing spatial process, spatial autocorrelation, spatial patterns, techniques for spatial interpolation, network connectivity, big data, and landscape patterns. The course culminates with students carrying out their own spatial analysis projects. This course assumes that students understand the basic concepts in GIS with some experience in software operation of ArcGIS.
Prerequisites: GEOG 402 or permission of the instructor

GEOG 463/563 GIS Programming (3 Credit Hours)
This course develops students' GIS programming skills. Focus is placed on Python programming in ArcGIS and JavaScript in Web GIS development.
Prerequisites: GEOG 402

GEOG 464/564 Advanced Environmental Geography Seminar (3 Credit Hours)
The objective of the course is to provide students with a deeper understanding of the current concepts and debates in environmental geography. By exploring the ethical and philosophical foundations of the field, the course considers the environment’s opportunities and constraints. While topics may include climate change, agricultural security, and renewable energy, the course will be driven by student-led discussions and participation. Critically thinking about complex phenomenon, the seminar will include various weekly readings, discussions, and writing assignments.
Prerequisites: GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S or permission of the instructor

GEOG 473/573 Geographic Information Systems for Emergency Management (3 Credit Hours)
Students will demonstrate advanced skills and techniques using spatial data to prevent, mitigate, respond to, and recover from intentional, natural, and accidental homeland security threats and emergencies. This course demonstrates the importance of rapidly disseminating spatial information towards the prevention and response of various organizations to homeland security events. This course will provide students with the tools and experience required to collect, prepare and manage spatial data and enable students to be prepared to map and analyze the data to quickly and effectively create a coordinated response to real homeland security events.
Prerequisites: GEOG 100S, GEOG 101S, GEOG 102T, or permission of the instructor

GEOG 475/575 Urban Resiliency (3 Credit Hours)
This course examines the multifaceted interface of built and natural environments and their impacts on land use management at spatial and temporal scales. It evaluates the impact of population pressure on sustainability through a survey of urban areas and analyzes urban planning and management capacities to maintain resilience despite environmental and technological hazards.
Prerequisites: GEOG 100S or GEOG 101S or permission of the instructor

GEOG 480W Senior Seminar in International Studies (3 Credit Hours)
Interdisciplinary research and the preparation of a senior thesis in international studies. This is a writing intensive course.
Prerequisites: A grade of C or better in ENGL 211C or ENGL 221C or ENGL 231C, senior standing in the BAIS degree program or permission of the instructor

GEOG 481 Geographic Inquiry and Professional Development (3 Credit Hours)
This course is designed to allow students to synthesize Geography concepts, theories, and knowledge and apply them to: 1) understand their positionality within the paradigms of the discipline, 2) explore future career paths, discover job possibilities, and graduate school opportunities in Geography, and 3) prepare materials (such as resumes and e-portfolios) to be used to apply for such positions.
Prerequisites: GEOG 100S OR GEOG 101S OR GEOG 102T

GEOG 490/590 Applied Cartography/GIS (1-3 Credit Hours)
Practical experience in applying the principles of cartography and geographical information systems to the design and construction of maps and other graphics.
Prerequisites: Junior standing or permission of the instructor

GEOG 495/595 Topics in Geography (1-4 Credit Hours)
The advanced study of selected topics which, due to their specialized nature, may not be offered regularly. These courses will appear in the course schedule, and will be more fully described in information distributed to all academic advisors.
Prerequisites: Appropriate survey course or permission of the instructor

GEOG 496/596 Topics in Geography (1-4 Credit Hours)
The advanced study of selected topics which, due to their specialized nature, may not be offered regularly. These courses will appear in the course schedule, and will be more fully described in information distributed to all academic advisors.
Prerequisites: Appropriate survey course or permission of the instructor

GEOG 497/597 Independent Research in Geography (1-3 Credit Hours)
Independent reading and study on a topic to be selected under the direction of the instructor. Conferences and papers as appropriate.
Prerequisites: Senior standing and approval of the director of geography

GEOG 498/598 Tutorial Work in Geography (1-3 Credit Hours)
Independent study under the direction of an instructor.
Prerequisites: Permission of instructor

GEOG 499 Senior Thesis (3 Credit Hours)
Completion of a research paper supervised by a faculty member from the Geography program. Research topic to be selected in concert with the faculty supervisor and a final written report required.
Prerequisites: GEOG 308 and senior standing in Geography
