

Latin American Studies Minor

Program Director: Angélica Huízar, ahuizar@odu.edu

The minor in Latin American Studies provides students with an interdisciplinary understanding of the remarkably diverse Latin American region as well as the US bilingual and bicultural community. For completion of a minor, a student must have a minimum overall cumulative grade point average of 2.00 in all courses specified as a requirement for the minor exclusive of lower-level courses and prerequisite courses and complete a minimum of six hours in upper-level courses in the minor requirement through courses offered by Old Dominion University.

Requirements

The requirements for a minor in Latin American Studies are 15 credit hours comprised of the following:

1. Three credit hours to demonstrate Spanish proficiency (202-level or higher) or the equivalent by examination.
2. Twelve credit hours at the 300- or 400-level taken from at least three of the following program areas: Geography, History, International Business, Latin American Studies, Political Science, Spanish, and World Cultural Studies.
