

Bachelor of Science

Human Services (BS)

Kristy Carlisle, Undergraduate Program Director
Chaniece Winfield, Online Program Coordinator

The program leading to the Bachelor of Science in human services prepares students for entry-level positions in a wide variety of community service settings. Students in the program learn the roles and functions of the human service profession; characteristics of human growth and development; personal, social, and environmental factors affecting individual development; characteristics of human service agencies; theories and skills of human services; and how ethical issues, legal issues, and multicultural issues affect the work of the human service profession. Graduates are prepared to assist clients in coping successfully with developmental tasks of normal growth and in solving problems caused by personal, social, and environmental stress. Graduates may be employed in a wide variety of settings including mental health, disability services, substance abuse, aging/gerontology, domestic violence, child and youth services, correction/criminal justice, health care, recreation/fitness, and vocational rehabilitation.

Students must adhere to all course prerequisites and corequisites as stated in the course descriptions and on the curriculum sheets.

Human Services Double Major Options

Human services majors can elect to double major in the areas listed below. Combining interest areas between two majors allows more versatility for students' future through enhanced opportunities to pursue graduate school and strengthening employability. In addition, several of these double major opportunities include specialized certificates to further demonstrate students' commitment and leadership in their field of choice.

Human Services and Sociology

The Department of Counseling and Human Services and the Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice have created an opportunity for undergraduate students to major in both human services and sociology. Both majors can be earned within the 120 credit hours required for an undergraduate degree. Within this double major, students have an opportunity to pursue a certificate in addiction prevention and treatment. Students who select the addiction prevention and treatment option will graduate with a certificate in addiction prevention and treatment.

Human Services and Criminal Justice

The Department of Counseling and Human Services and the Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice have created an opportunity for undergraduate students to major in both human services and criminal justice. Both majors can be earned within the 120 credit hours required for an undergraduate degree. Within this double major, students have an opportunity to pursue a certificate in addiction prevention and treatment. Students who select the addiction prevention and treatment option will graduate with a certificate in addiction prevention and treatment.

Human Services and Interdisciplinary Studies - Leadership

The Department of Counseling and Human Services and the Department of Interdisciplinary Studies have created an opportunity for undergraduate students to major in both human services and interdisciplinary studies-leadership. Within this double major, students will be exposed to a number of fields of study to enhance their knowledge and skills in the area of leadership, professional writing, and technology, while engaging in human services coursework. In addition, students may pursue two specialized certificates within the double major – addiction prevention and treatment and professional leadership.

Students interested in these double major options should contact the Human Services Director for more information, HMSVupd@odu.edu.

Departmental Honors

Students may earn the designation of departmental honors on their diplomas by completing the minimum University standards for honors designation in addition to the human services program standards. Specifically, the standards are:

1. Minimum cumulative GPA of 3.25.
2. Minimum major GPA of 3.5.
3. Completion of at least two 300-400 level courses designated by the department to be honors courses.
4. Completion of at least 60 credit hours at Old Dominion University, 54 of which must be in grade-point graded courses.
5. Completion of a scholarly experience such as a research project with a human services faculty mentor. HMSV 397 Independent Study: Guided Research in Human Services can be taken as an elective course and will qualify as a scholarly experience. Students enrolled in this course may conduct individual or group projects focused on research, literature review, or methodology development. All work is conducted under the supervision and evaluation of a program faculty member. Please contact Dr. Kristy Carlisle, kcarlisl@odu.edu, for more information regarding this course.

BA or BS to MBA (Master of Business Administration) Linked Program

The linked BA/MBA or BS/MBA program is an early entry to the MBA program of study. The early-entry program is designed for well qualified non-business undergraduate ODU students to start their MBA program prior to completing their undergraduate degree. Well qualified non-business undergraduate students may take MBA-level courses as early as three semesters prior to graduation and count up to 12 graduate credits toward their undergraduate degree. Students participating in the early-entry program must earn a minimum of 150 credit hours (120 discrete credit hours for the undergraduate degree and 30 discrete credit hours for the graduate degree). Early-entry program students should carefully consider their undergraduate degree program requirements when planning their course of study. Students in the early-entry program work in close consultation with the MBA Program Office and should refer to information in the Strome College of Business section in the graduate catalog (<http://catalog.odu.edu/graduate/stromecollegeofbusiness/>) to develop an individualized plan of study based on the required coursework.

BA or BS to MPA (Master of Public Administration) Linked Program

The linked BA/MPA or BS/MPA program provides qualified Old Dominion University undergraduate students with the opportunity to earn a master's degree in public administration while taking credits in the MPA program as an undergraduate student. The program is designed for highly motivated students with the desire to immediately continue their education after the bachelor's degree. The program is especially relevant to individuals seeking to work (or currently working) in the public or non-profit sectors, but is suitable for students from any undergraduate major. Graduate courses may be taken during the fall and spring semester of the student's senior undergraduate year. Up to 12 graduate credits can count toward both the undergraduate and graduate degree and can meet upper-level General Education requirements. After receiving the undergraduate degree, a student will continue with the MPA program, taking MPA courses until completing the required 39 credit hours. Students in the linked program must earn a minimum of 150 credit hours (120 discrete credit hours for the undergraduate degree and 30 discrete credit hours for the graduate degree).

Requirements for admission to the graduate program can be found in the School of Public Service section of the Graduate Catalog (<http://catalog.odu.edu/graduate/business/public-service/>). For additional information, please contact the School of Public Service in the Strome College of Business.
